Australia Day Preparations

The founder of "Angel Flight" Mr Bill Bristow will be the 2008 Australia Day Ambassador for Inglewood Shire.

Celebrations this year will take on an aviation theme and be held at the Inglewood Aerodrome where the programme will include an air pageant, scenic flights an exhibition of unique and emergency service aircraft.

The official opening of the new sealed all weather runway at the Inglewood Aerodrome will be conducted at this celebration.

Nominations for the various classifications for Australia Day awards have now closed and all nominees and their families will shortly be officially invited to attend the celebrations.
